In the correct version of utilitarianism, how should you make choices that change the number of agents?

Maximize the SUM of all (so tility of all the sum.

Maximize the sum the sum.

Maximize the set... much that the mean.

Maximize the set... much that the mean.

Maximize the set... much that the mean.

Maximize to something between the mean.

Maximize to something between the set... should only be the set... much that the set... much that the set... the set... much that the set... set... much that the set... much the set... m